

THANK YOU- GRANDFATHER

Dear Grandpa,

Thank you!

Thank you for being with me, just being there when I knew most of the world was against me. Thank you for teaching me the morals in life and always asking me to be ethical at what I do. A lot of people may tell their grandparents are the best but I truly know mine are!

Thank you for teaching me how to hold a pencil. I still remember my parents won't let me write with my left hand because they were superstitious about it but you always told me to go ahead and do what I wanted, a virtue that I will carry forever.

Thank you for the amazing genes that probably helped me ace at math, and for having the patience to sit with me when I was being tremendously irritating.

Thank you for those bedtime stories and the tales where the good defeated the bad, finally I am old enough to understand its true meaning.

Thank you for your constant prayers and your unsullied faith in the almighty, to help me become a better person. Thank you for pampering me and buying me everything I asked for; from the extra large balloon to my first cricket bat.

Thank you for giving me all the wisdom that you have and teaching me from the mistakes dad and you made in your lives.

I know you aren't there to see this, it's been over two years but I still think of you a lot.

Thank you, Bapu.

Yours lovingly,

Rohit.
